

Romantic Workshop #2: TEST © 2007 Kiss of the Romantic

In this exercise of intimacy and devotion we will revisit the first exercise. Instead of filling out data about your partner, we will now test each of you to see who can remember the most of what you have written about your partner. Your test sheets will list 38 random items from the favorites section. To make this test a fair one, neither one of you should review the filled-out data sheets from exercise #1 until it is time to check your answers. You are to be tested on what you remember from that exercise (when you completed it).

The winner, of course, is the person with the highest score. The reward for having the highest score is that person's choice of one coupon from either the "more intimate" or the "red hot" categories, to be redeemed immediately, or as soon as possible. These special poetic and imaginative "coupons" are available from the home page of this web site at an extremely reasonable price. The person with the lowest score must print out and present the winners' coupon of choice, and then of course when the coupon is redeemed, carry out what the coupon says (with enthusiasm).

If she gets a higher score, she may choose any one coupon from (RB1-25 or RC1-25). Print out RBLIST and RCLIST to view your possible choices. If he has the highest score, print out MBLIST and MCLIST.

Here I will give a little explanation on how the coupons work. There are three categories of coupons, they are romance (A), more intimate (B) and red hot (C). Each category has 25 coupons for her, and 25 coupons for him. The romance coupons are named: for example RA01 = her coupon, category A (romance), coupon #1; likewise MA03 = for him coupon, category A (romance), coupon #3. Each group of coupons includes a separate list of each coupon's content such as RALIST.

Treat these romance coupons as special gifts for your loved one. If you present a romance coupon to your love you should give it with sincerity. Carefully read the poem and the statement below it so that you fully understand the intent of the coupon. Timing and presentation are just as important as sincerity in giving. Likewise, when you are given a coupon you should redeem it in a timely manner so that the giver may express his/her gift of love and devotion.
