ROMANTIC WORKSHOP #23

FUN WITH SUBMISSIVE PLAYTIME

Your loving relationship is likely to be one based upon an equal partnership, as it should be. Likewise, it is safe to assume that you are both equally interested in keeping your romantic relationship vibrant and exciting. Good for you! This workshop will attempt to guide you through an odyssey of sex-master/sex-slave fun playtime, enabling a new twist on your bedroom encounters. This type of activity can allow great over-the-top experimentation for both partners when they get their turn as sex-master. After both partners have read this workshop and each is willing to give it a try, an agreement should be made that whoever is playing the submissive role will comply with the “Masters’ directives”. The submissive will respond “Yes Master” or “OK Boss” in a submissive but enthusiastic manner. You could say that this activity is a form of pampering, only in reverse. The master will determine how he or she will get pampered or derive pleasure or fun. Some may ask “Why would I want to take a submissive sexual role with my partner”? Consider the possibility of taking turns at really getting it your way as boss or sex slave-master. You can fulfill your own sexual fantasies and infuse your own sense of humor because your partner has agreed to play-pretend that he or she is the submissive sex slave. You can choose what positions you will make love in, and have great fun giving kinky orders to your submissive partner. Correspondingly, there is pleasure to be had in fulfilling your lovers’ deepest desires as the submissive. You may even experience an excited anticipation as you wonder what your sex-master will direct you to do next. In playing the boss role you may find the courage to reveal a favorite sex-thing that you could not verbalize before, but now you are empowered with your status to order it done! Or you may simply act on a fleeting idea and give it a try to see how it goes. You will learn what your partners' favorite activities are, which can be employed by you at a later date when the fancy strikes you. Another good reason to agree to play the master-slave scenario is simply to infuse a novel and fun change into your lovemaking activities. Also, when you are playing the submissive role, you may occasionally find your taskmaster is more focused on your pleasure rather than their own. And who wouldn't enjoy that?

This type of activity can be approached in several ways, all of which are fun in themselves. One could simply present their partner with a romance coupon which states you get boss status for one day. The coupon recipient then redeems it to assume the sex-boss status. Or, a romantic wager can be made, declaring the bet loser is sex-slave for the remainder of the day. Also, a dare can be proposed where a successfully accomplished dare gets dominator status and failing the dare gets the submissive role. You could agree together that birthdays and/or Christmas holidays get an automatic boss-status as part of one's birthday or Christmas gift to the other. Anyway you go about deciding who gets which role is good, as long as you both agree on the method.

Once you have determined who gets what role, it is time to get into character. The submissive partner should maintain an eager-to-please attitude and demeanor. He or she will comply with all commands given by the sex-master or boss. Hopefully you have set up ground rules declaring what activities are not allowed, if there are any. The sex-master should maintain a fun attitude and avoid all forms of meanness or cruelty. After all, you wouldn't want to have an angry or uncooperative sex-slave would you? If the sex-master has an inclination toward a Dominatrix type scenario, it is suggested that a pre-play discussion is conducted about bondage and spanking type activities. The submissive has the power of permission in these matters.

Playtime directives are at the discretion of the “Master” or “Boss”. Even though each person has their own individual likes and favorite activities we will offer suggestions for getting things started and some fun possibilities during your fun submissive playtime.

For starters, it is always good to have a freshly clean master and slave, so command your submissive to disrobe before he or she begins to remove all of your clothes. Then your slave can draw a hot bath or run the shower for you. Order up some wine, candles and bubble-bath according to your tastes and compel your submissive to sponge-wash you from head to toe, followed with your slave cleaning themselves. If so inclined, water-sports and enemas are in order if you plan back-door fun. Have your wine brought to your lips by your slave when you want a sip so that your slave will have lots of practice with compliance. Be generous to him or her with an occasional sip as well. You may even wish to get your sex-slave a little inebriated. If so, just make the command. Also, it is a good idea to praise your sex-slave often when your commands are followed to keep your slave in a jovial mood. Place a towel over your slaves’ back and shoulders for warmth as he or she dries you off, allowing the sex-slave to dry off when finished with you.

From here the next move has endless possibilities, including: what your slave will wear-or not, what clothes your slave will put on you-or not, background music, lights dimmed, and candles lit, light snacks for Caesar-type feeding, adult toys prepared etc. Your plan could be to prolong the sex part so that anticipation can do its’ magic on both of you. If so, activities such as having your sex-slave do a sexy strip-tease to music or give you a massage or polish your finger and toe nails.

A little bit of lighthearted kinkiness can be fun for the master to compel, also depending upon your tastes. Examples for female slaves are: have her pose for some steamy digital pictures, tell her to tease her own nipples with a sable make-up brush, then with some silk material, then have her lift her breasts upward to allow her to tongue-flick her nipples, you could have her check herself for wetness and order her to taste that wetness by sucking on the test-fingers, suggest yummy sounds if you wish. Maybe have her get another sample so you can taste it also. Yummy! Tell your sex-slave you think it would be a good idea for her to occasionally beg for permission to sexually please you. When she complies with this, tell her teasingly that you will consider it. You may wish to order her to insert a butt-plug into her anus if that sort of play is ok with her. Don't forget the lube if you do. Other light-hearted kinkiness can include: wear remote-controlled vibrating panties if you have them. Use the remote to tease and please as you wish. Order her to fetch her favorite sex toy and demonstrate how she uses it for gratification. You could stop this demo just before orgasm to further tease your sex-slave. Alternately, you may compel her to test her multiple orgasm abilities with her choice of tools for this purpose while you watch. One more suggestion you may wish to try is to order her to give herself a g-spot orgasm to see how far she can squirt. Lighthearted kinkiness a lady can compel her male sex-slave to do can include: Tell him to caress his balls, direct him in how to do it, such as gently, vigorously, slap them, or even to rub massage oil on them. Take digital pictures of poses you compel him to take, or make a video with you as the director. Make him rub ice on his nipples and/or balls to test his compliance to your directions. You could compel him to paint all his toenails with bright red nail polish. Or you could make him collect and taste his own pre-cum leakage. If so, do you wish him to make yummy sounds? Other lighthearted kinkiness can include: straddling his face and giving him directions on how to kiss, lick, and lip-caress your clitoris. Also, if allowed, a butt-plug can be inserted or made to take your strap-on in your "reverse-role" fantasy. You could give him your vibrating dildo and order him to suck on it, or tease his penis and balls while on full vibration settings. You can also compel him to stimulate your nipples with the head of his penis. Order him to force a bunch of penis leakage on your nipples, then make him lick it all off. More yummy sounds?

The above lighthearted kinky suggestions are just that: suggestions. Use your imagination to come up with your own ideas on how to direct your sex-slave; ones that will titillate you as the sex-boss. Some may liken some of our kinky suggestions to humiliation rather than kinky fun, and that is ok. Those activities are not for you. But some will find them fun and exciting because they are over-the-top and novel.

Save the best orders for last. Great sex is sex exactly the way you love it. Be bold in your sexual demands and be precise in your instructions to your sex-slave and you will experience a truly gratifying time with your lover.
